“Tom Van Dyke has crafted an inspired story of the Old West—Arizona and New Mexico Territories—1873. A well-researched tale of an adventuresome young man, carving out a life that most men can only dream about. Hold on tight. It's a page turner and a fast ride.” —MARSHALL TRIMBLE, Official Arizona State Historian

Tom Van Dyke is a member of Western Writers of America. He has been writing screenplays and documentaries since 1970. One of his motion pictures was considered for a nomination of an Academy Award. A practicing artist, Van Dyke's sculptures, paintings and photography have been exhibited in the New York Museum of Modern Art, the Carnegie Art Institute, and other museums. He lives with his wife Mary on a ranch in Cave Creek, Arizona. A Cowboy Christmas: An American Tale is his first book.

This speaker series is made possible by the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records, A Division of the Secretary of State.
